How to Play

Fill the grid so every row and every column holds each number once: 1 to 4 in a 4 x 4 grid, 1 to 5 in a 5 x 5 grid, 1 to 6 in a 6 x 6 grid.

Thick lines mark groups of squares called cages. The number and sign in the corner of a cage tell you what the numbers inside make: 7+ means they add up to 7, 2– means the bigger minus the smaller is 2, 12× means they multiply to 12, and 3÷ means the bigger divided by the smaller is 3.

A cage with just a number and no sign is a single square: write that number in.

Numbers may repeat inside a cage as long as they are not in the same row or column.

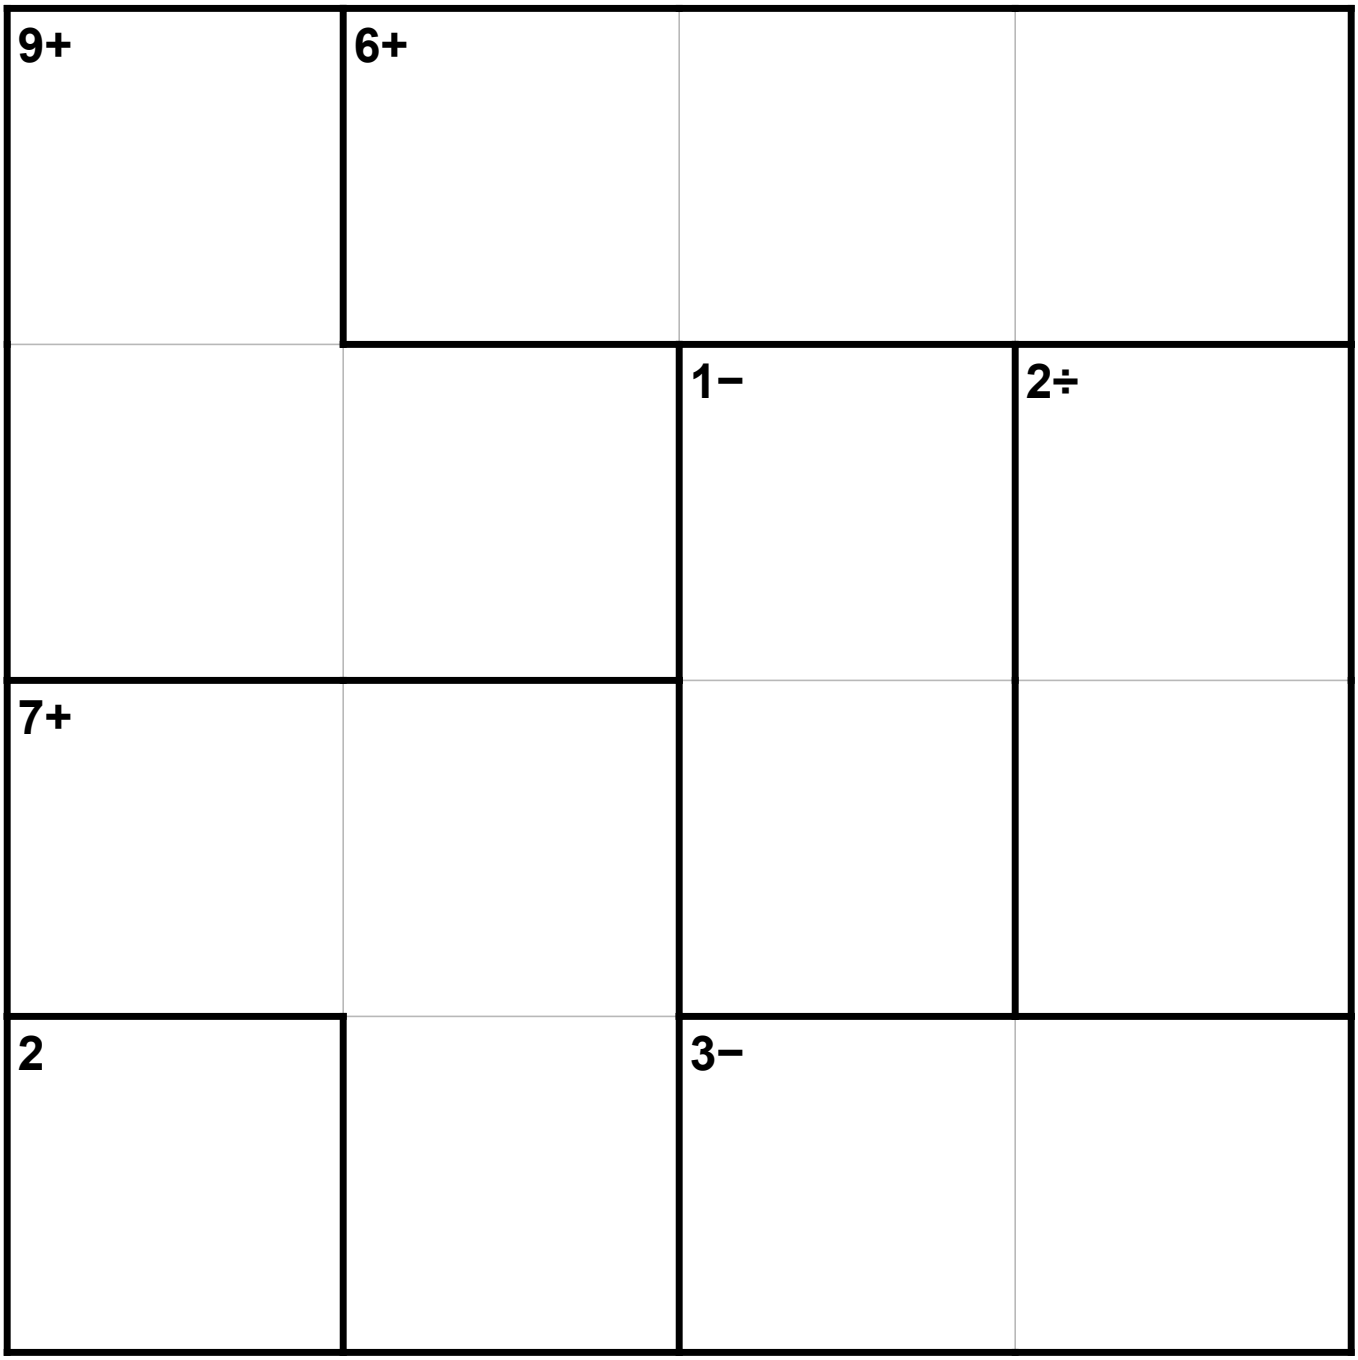

Every puzzle has exactly one solution, checked by computer. Answers are at the back.
