Tips for Grown Ups

Sit together for 5 to 10 minutes a day. One page a day is plenty for little hands.

Each letter page starts with a big black letter to look at. Then your child traces the grey letters, then the dotted letters, and writes on the empty line alone.

Use a fat pencil or crayon. Show your child how to start at the top of each letter.

After the alphabet there are word pages with a box to draw a picture, then numbers 1 to 10 to trace and count. Praise the effort, not the neatness.
